1. POSITION CONTEXT & SUMMARY OF POSITION

Consistent with the Agency mission, Strengthening Families to Build Vibrant Communities, the Hume Riverina Community Legal Service (HRCLS) is a program auspiced by UMFC. HRCLS is part of a national community legal sector, providing legal assistance to people 'at the door', also using preventative strategies such as community development, legal education and law and policy reform projects to inform, strengthen and empower the community we serve. The Lawyer (Family Violence & Youth) will be one of a team consisting of the Principal Lawyer/Manager, Operations Manager, Lawyers, Community Development Coordinator, Legal Assistant, Reception Administration Officer and volunteers, who work to deliver free and confidential legal advice, information, casework and referrals for individuals and groups who reside or work in North East Victoria or the Riverina of NSW, especially those on low incomes or otherwise disadvantaged in their access to justice.

Under the direction of the Principal Lawyer/Manager, the primary role of the Lawyer (Family Violence & Youth) is to coordinate, develop and deliver the Invisible Hurdles Project, a new 2 year project funded by the Victorian Legal Services Board and Commissioner to improve family violence outcomes for young people. The project will require the establishment and development of key relationships with referring community agencies and other stakeholders in Wodonga, Wangaratta and Benalla, as well as the development and delivery of community legal education sessions for community workers and young people. The role will also include the provision of legal advice, information, ongoing casework and Court representation to young people in relation to family violence and related areas of law (such as credit and debt, child protection and family law).
